HAPPENING AT WBLUMC

Offering for Haiti earthquake relief: NOW THROUGH LABOR DAY, SEPT. 6: After the Aug. 4 earthquake in Haiti, WBLUMC is collecting donations for the United Methodist Committee on Relief and Agape Flights. Through financial donations, UMCOR is coordinating steps to help meet basic and immediate needs, as well as respond long term to replace homes and rebuild churches and schools destroyed in the quake. Contributions to Agape Flights help fuel aircraft, cover the cost of shipping relief supplies, and purchase supplies in Haiti and the U.S. as needed. To donate online, go to wblumc.org/giving and click Online Giving, then select Haiti as the fund. Or, write a check to WBLUMC with "Haiti" in the memo line. Thank you!

Exchange your key: IF YOU CURRENTLY HAVE A CHURCH ENTRY KEY, please contact Director of Operations Patricia.Kytola@wblumc.org to learn how to access our new keyless entry system. Thank you for your patience and understanding during this latest change in our building!

Art displays: The watercolor paintings by WBUMC member Joan Hoffman in our hallways are available for sale until Monday, Aug. 30. A price list is posted outside the library. Please contact Mary Ellen Calderwood 612-720-4733 if you're interested in purchasing any of them. A new quilt display will be installed soon.
